

Budapest Centre

FOR MASS ATROCITIES PREVENTION

Call for Interns

Are you interested in human rights and international politics? Are you looking for an opportunity to work in a multi-cultural and stimulating environment? Then you might be the person we are looking for.

The Budapest Centre for Mass Atrocities Prevention is offering an internship position starting from 15 June for a minimum of 4 months.

The position is open to Bachelor's and Master's Degree students of international relations, political science, security studies, international law or a related degree. There is the possibility of recognizing the internship for credits for current students.

The intern will work remotely and will not be financially remunerated.

Tasks

- Research relating to ongoing projects (including writing articles, which will be published)
- Update and management of the Online E-Youth Library of the Centre
- Support for organizing conferences
- Support for the management of the website of the Centre
- Supporting the communication of the Centre on its social media

Requirements

- Knowledge of and interest in human rights, issues pertaining to the prevention of mass atrocities, security and international relations
- Proficiency in the English language at the level of the European standard C1 (knowledge of French and other languages is an advantage)
- Computer literacy, including knowledge of social media

Desirable Qualities

- Flexible
- Independent and proactive
- Able to meet deadlines
- Team-working skills

How to apply

Please, send a cover letter and a resume to this email address:
gyorgy.tatar@budapestcentre.eu.

Deadline: 31/05/2021